

Hugging Face JAX Global Sprint - 2nd place

Hugging Face congratulates

Kotti Sasikanth

for his outstanding work as part of the Flax Community Event organized by Hugging Face and Google. As a member of the Putting-Nerf-on-a-diet team, Kotti has shown excellent ability to work independently on complex Machine Learning projects. His team's project was evaluated by leading Machine Learning researchers to be the second best project out of over a hundred submissions.
